"I strongly support the Friends Foundation of CCPL and their efforts to promote Legacy Giving. Designating funds in an estate plan, trust or will is a wonderful way to support the long-term goals of our community library."

*Support Your
Library with a
Legacy Gift*

If you are at a stage of life where you are planning for the future, you may be considering a will, trust or overall estate plan. As an active and engaged Library patron, we encourage you to include the Library in your plans.

Your loved ones always comes first – but there are a variety of ways to remember the Library. We call it Legacy Giving and we invite you to join the Library Legacy Circle.

Some believe that a planned gift needs to be large, but actually, we look for gifts that are meaningful to you and your family's plan. Gifts of all sizes will help strengthen our Library for future generations.

Library Legacy Giving options to consider are:

Bequests

By including the Friends Foundation of CCPL in your will, you can make a meaningful gift without reducing the assets available to you during your life. Your gift can be a specific dollar amount, a percentage of your estate, or the remainder of your estate after other distributions.

Beneficiary Designation

Other Ways to Give

We also accept gifts of stock or securities, grants made through donor-advised funds, distributions from your IRA and memorial or tribute gifts.
